

Live Virtual Meetings to Support Your Professional Learning

Description: Each week we open our virtual doors to teachers, coaches, and administrators who are looking to connect and/or who are seeking some additional resources to support their work in these challenging times.

Discussions are open-ended and designed to address your specific needs, but some topics we are currently supporting include:

- Identifying and supporting learners' needs/providing feedback
- Identifying and supporting teachers' needs/providing feedback
- Defining “active learning” in online environments
- Analyzing impact of teaching strategies on engagement and learning
- Imagining and organizing formative assessments
- Utilizing standards for online teaching and learning
- Creating systems for continued professional collaboration
- Cultivating your culture of learning
- Aligning teacher goals and support to student learning
- Observing for equity

We can provide customized asynchronous and synchronous professional learning experiences to meet your specific needs.

If you are interested use this direct link to contact us:

<https://tepperandflynn.com/contact/>

Allow us to help you empower your teachers and learners.